

As seen in the Dallas Morning News July 23, 2006

Bill Griffins' Missy Woehr Sells Cascada on Turtle Creek

Missy Woehr of Bill Griffin Real Estate has delivered records sales for number of units sold at the Cascada on Turtle Creek. "This project has been so exciting. I believe Cascada offers the best of Turtle Creek for homeowners seeking privacy and outstanding amenities," says Ms. Woehr.

"Ms. Woehr is known for providing exceptional service to her clients and knows how to successfully market properties", says Bill Griffin, president of Bill Griffin Real Estate. "Her knowledge and expertise in the Turtle Creek and Uptown markets are outstanding".

The Cascada on Turtle Creek is a Tuscan-inspired, gated enclave of 22 town homes offering classic Italian architecture blended with modern home conveniences. Nestled between the Katy Trail and West Village shopping areas, residents at the community are minutes from the Arts District, shopping, the AAC, many fine restaurants and downtown Dallas.

Ms. Woehr says, "The location offers many advantages for home buyers in the Turtle Creek area who are seeking ample square footage in a low maintenance life-style."

3346 Blackburn is offered at $1,100,000.00. With 3 bedrooms, 3 ½ baths and a media room, the 4,458 square-foot home has a dramatic spiral staircase, cast stone encased fireplace, marble bathrooms, hand-distressed oak flooring. In addition, this end-unit has an open floor plan providing a formal living and dining area with a balcony and 1st floor courtyard.

3338 Blackburn is 3,700 square feet and is offered at $979,900.00. This 3 bedroom, 3 ½ bath town home offers exceptional finish including Subzero refrigerator, wine valet, Dacor gas cook top and dual Convection wall ovens. A pair of double French doors offers a dramatic view into the quaint cobblestone courtyard.

Both homes feature security cameras at the front doors, each gate, intercom systems full audio in the main rooms.

Bill Griffin Real Estate Brokerage was founded in 2005 as a full-service office located at 6801 Snider Plaza that specializes in the close in upscale areas of Dallas.

For additional information, or to preview, contract Ms. Woehr at 214-418-6867 or visit the Bill Griffin Real Estate website at www.billgriffinrealestate.com .