

Susan Griffin Holds Open Updated Residence at The Savoy on Lomo Alto

Susan Griffin, with Bill Griffin Real Estate, will hold open 4212 Lomo Alto, Unit 303 from 2-5pm today. The home is in the Savoy, an intimate European style building in the Highland Park school district, designed around a lush courtyard. It is within walking distance to Whole Foods, Highland Park Village and numerous stores.

The residence is a corner, top floor unit with only one shared wall. It has an open plan with approximately 1874 square feet, which includes two bedrooms, two-baths, and a study. It has all the features of a home including a formal living and dining rooms, a breakfast room, two wood burning fireplaces, a wonderful butlers pantry with a bar and a full size laundry room.

Extensive updates include new hardwood floors, plantation shutters, all new kitchen with, granite countertops, stainless appliances, and ceramic floors. Both baths are remodeled and immaculate.

For additional information on other open houses visit www.billgriffinrealestate.com.