

As seen in the Dallas Morning News March 1, 2009

Newly Furnished Designer Show Place in Highland Park and Newly Complete French Home in University Park

Photo Caption: The formal areas of 4345 Fairfax offer ideal areas for formal entertaining.

4345 Fairfax is a new construction Mediterranean home located on a premium Highland Park block designed by AIA architect Ross Ikemire and built by Lyle Turner of Malt Homes Inc. The home was recently professionally decorated and furnished by a designer with impeccable taste allowing viewers to envision and appreciate the exquisite facets of the home. The home is over 6800 square feet with 5 bedrooms, 5.2 baths, 4 fireplaces, game room, and elevator option and is being offered at $2,940,000. Susan Griffin the listing agent will host an open house today from 2-5.

3512 Haynie is a French style home also built by Malt Homes Inc. and designed by Ross Ikemire located just down the block from Gore Park. This newly complete home boast copper dormer and chimney accents, slate veranda, arched French doors, authentic stucco and cast stone exterior. The home is being offered at $2,395,000 with over 5900 of square feet including 4 bedrooms, 5.2 baths, 4 fireplaces, game room, back loggia and deep back yard. Open today from 2-5.

Bill Griffin Real Estate is a full service residential real estate brokerage company located in Snider Plaza. The firm specializes in upscale properties in the close-in established neighborhoods of Dallas. For information on these and other properties listed with the company visit billgriffinrealestate.com.